September 2008

Announcements by the Secretary General

I am pleased to announce that at its meeting in Freiburg, 16 September 2008, our Executive Committee elected Professor Michal Sewerinsky as President Elect of our Society. In keeping with our by-laws he has immediately joined the ISL&SSL Officer's Board. He will be inaugurated as President at the closing ceremony of our next XIX World Congress of Labour and Social Security Law, to be held in Sydney in early September 2009. His mandate will run until the closure of the XX World Congress of our Society, to be held in Santiago de Chile, in 2012.

I have the great regret to announce that our Honorary President and former President, Professor Américo Pla Rodríguez passed away on 22 July 2008 in his home city of Montevideo, aged 89. He was one of the greatest ever Latin American labour law scholars and a close friend of many of us. We will remember him as a person of great moral standing, a firm opponent to the dictatorship that in 1973 seized power in his country and a reference for the younger generations of Uruguayan and Latin American labour law academics.

Dear colleagues

You will find below a report on recent news and forthcoming events of our Society and its national members.

1. Executive Committee Meeting, Freiburg, 16 September 2008

The Executive Committee met in Freiburg, in the morning of 16 September 2008. It was attended by representatives and deputy representatives of ISL&SSL local chapters of 39 countries, two of our Honorary Presidents and the Officers. I would like to put on record my deep thanks to Professor Löwisch for the very important logistic support, including interpretation services, which he put at our disposal. The meeting was chaired by Professor Kazuo Sugeno, President of ISL&SSL and took decisions on the following questions:

- (a) Report on activities: the Executive Committee took note of the report on activities of ISL&SSL submitted by the Secretary General;
- (b) Financial report: the Executive Committee took note of the financial report, submitted by our Treasurer Giuseppe Casale. It noted with satisfaction that most of our national members had paid their dues until 2007. It also conveyed its deep thanks to Ms. Johanna Ruefli, for all the assistance she provides to the Treasurer and the Secretary General;
- (c) Election of a President Elect: the Secretary General informed that he had registered two nominations for President-Elect, namely Professor Franco Carinci, nominated by our Italian Member and supported by our Turkish Member, and Professor Michal Sewerinsky, nominated by our Polish Member and supported by Vice-President Jozsef Hajdu on behalf of a number of associations from Central Europe. Both nominations were introduced by their respective sponsors, after which a secret ballot was called, the result of which was as follows:

Total votes cast	: 39
For Professor Sewerinsky	: 30
For Professor Carinci	: 8
Blank or void	: 1

Professor Sewerinsky was accordingly declared President Elect of ISL&SSL. In accordance with our by-laws he has immediately joined the Officers' Board, together with our current President, the Secretary General and the Treasurer. He will take up his position of President of ISL&SSL at the closing ceremony of our next World Congress in Sydney, September 2009, for a three-year mandate running until the closure of the following world congress, Santiago de Chile, 2012.

I warmly congratulate Professor Sewerinsky for his election. I wish him a fruitful and successful presidency of our Society.

Professor Sewerinsky (1939) is an active and well known member of our Society and its former Vice-President (2000 – 2003). At present he is the President of the Polish Section of ISL&SSL. He was a member of the Organizing Committee of the 7th World Congress (Warsaw 1970) and the President of the Organizing Committee of the 6th European Congress for Labour Law and Social Security in Warsaw (1999). He is author, co-author or editor of 15 books and some 140 articles published in Polish and other languages. He is Head of the Chair of European Law (Chaire Jean Monnet) and former President of Lodz University (1990-1996). He has also been President of the Polish Conference of University Presidents. At present he teaches Labour Law at the University of Lodz and is a member of the International Academy of Comparative Law. Apart from academic activity he has been involved in policy-making in his country as Minister of Science and Higher Education (2005-2007)

- (d) Venue of next ISL&SSL congresses: The Executive Committee decided that the VIII American Congress will take place in Cartagena de Indias, Colombia, in 2010; the X European Congress will be held in Sevilla, Spain, in 2011, and that Santiago de Chile will host the XX World Congress in 2012. Proposals of agenda items and general reporters of these congresses will be decided at a later stage, after consultations between the respective organizing committees, the officers and vice-presidents of ISL&SSL.
- (e) Reform of our by-laws: the Executive Committee approved most of the reforms proposed by the officers, some of which after some discussion and amendments. Some points are, however, still to be clarified. This will be done during the next Executive Committee meeting in Sydney, next year, just before the opening of the World Congress. After adoption by the Executive Committee, the by-laws as amended would need to be submitted to the General Assembly, for ratification.
- (f) Composition of regional groups and distribution of vice-presidencies: Following a motion by Professor Ghera (Italy) a working party will be established, to review the present distribution of regional sub-groups, which is relevant for the appointment of vice-presidents, and also is taken into account for the rotation of the Presidency of our Society amongst the different sub-regions.

At present we have national associations or individual members in 58 countries, with the following regional and sub-regional distribution:

3. XIX World Congress, Sydney, 1-4 September 2009

Website: <http://www.labourlawsydney.com/>

Preparation of this congress is well underway. The venue is the Hotel Wentworth Sofitel, near the Harbour and the Opera House. The organizing committee has given careful thought to the congress format. It intends to organize a number of workshops which will be running simultaneously in the afternoon sessions, so as to facilitate group discussion and exchange of views amongst the participants. Interpretation from and into English, French and Spanish will be provided during all the plenary sittings and in one workshop everyday. German interpretation would be provided should the number of registered German-Speaking participants is sufficient enough so as to make it cost-efficient. Social programs for accompanying persons and side trips for those who want to prolong their stay in Australia after or before the Congress are also being proposed.

Below is the agenda and name of the general reporters:

Theme 1: Regulatory frameworks and law enforcement in new forms of employment.
General Reporter: Rosemary Owens, Australia

Theme 2: Workers' representation and social dialogue at the workplace level. General Reporter: Antoine Jeammaud, France.

Theme 3: Emerging patterns of social protection in light of structural changes (ageing population, changing family structures, immigration, budgetary constraints, political and ideological realignments). General reporter: Carlos Hernández Contreras (Dominican Republic)

Round table: Work and family life. Moderator: Gillian Lester (US)

Registration: It is already possible to register online, through the webpage. Those who register before May, 31, 2009 will benefit from a reduced registration rate.

Below are the registration fees, in Australian dollars¹, as announced by the Organizing Committee.

	Early Bird Rate Until 31 May 2009	Standard Rate After 1 June 2009	Onsite Rate after 18 August 2009
Delegate	795	950	1100
Student	495	605	715
Accompanying person	330	330	330

I am urging the Organizing Committee to reconsider the amount of these fees, as they are higher than those paid by participants to the last World Congress, Paris, 2006. In Paris early bird rate had been fixed at € 360 (roughly AUD$ 632 at current exchange rates) and regular and onsite rate was € 420 (roughly AUD$738) including VAT (refundable to non EU residents).
